California Family Law Report

2017 ADVANCED FAMILY LAW COURSE

FOCUS

California Family Law Report (CFLR) will present the biannual Advanced Family Law Course (AFLC) in May/June 2017. This comprehensive and intensive program showcases an all-star faculty of over 20 justices, judges and lawyers.

AFLC is designed for experienced family law practitioners looking to fortify their knowledge, as well as attorneys new to family law looking to set themselves apart from their peers. It is also a "must" for those preparing to take the Certified Family Law Specialist Exam. Our expert faculty will provide test-taking tips and suggestions on how to improve your study skills. Attendees will sit for a practice exam that will be reviewed at the end of the course.

The program consists of 6 days (33 hours) of live presentations, plus 33 hours of on-demand video lectures. These video lectures can be accessed at any time and any place, so that you can review exam topics or focus on particular substantive areas at your convenience. This State Bar-approved course will satisfy the entire educational requirement for Family Law Specialist certification (or recertification), including 6 hours of credit in Category 5 (Psychology and Counseling).

Past attendees, as well as first-timers, will benefit from AFLC's guidance on complex family law issues and up-to-the-minute review of new developments in the field. This is truly a "don't miss" event!

He is Co-Chair of the Family and Juvenile Advisory Committee and was a member of the Elkins Family Law Task Force, Elkins Family Law Implementation Task Force and Self-Represented Litigant Task Force. Judge Juhás received the California State Bar, Family Law Section, Judicial Officer of the Year Award in 2011 and the ACFLS Outstanding Service to Family Law Award in 2015. He regularly teaches for (among others) the Los Angeles Superior Court's education program, CJER, the Los Angeles County Bar Association, and Southwestern Law School.

MARC PETER KAPLAN, CFLS, is a Certified Family Law Specialist with over 30 years' CPA and forensic experience. He has a unique practice, serving exclusively as a dedicated neutral as well as a Special Master/Referee, Mediator, Arbitrator or Privately Compensated Temporary Judge. His mission statement is to resolve cases, educate the bench and bar on family law financial issues, and promote civility among attorneys.

ANNE C. KILEY, CFLS, has been practicing law since 1990 and is a Certified Family Law Specialist. Her Martindale-Hubbell rating is "AV," she has been recognized as a Southern California Super Lawyer by the Los Angeles Times Magazine since 2005, and she has been included in Best Lawyers in America since 2007. Ms. Kiley is a member of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. She has served on the board of Levitt and Quinn and on the Judge Pro Tem panel for the Los Angeles Superior Court Family Law Departments. She was a Visiting Clinical Professor of Law at the University of Southern California Law School in the Fall of 2003, and taught family law at The University of Southern California Law School in 2007 and 2008.

STEPHEN A. KOLODNY, CFLS, is a Certified Family Law Specialist and principal partner in the Beverly Hills firm of Kolodny & Anteau. He is a member of both the IAML and AAML (past President of both the Southern California and International chapters), founding Member of American College of Family Trial Lawyers and its recently retired Executive Vice-President, former Chair of LACBA Family Law Section, and Co-Chair of the Family Law Trial Institute Training Program in Houston.

CHRISTOPHER C. MELCHER, CFLS, is a Fellow of the AAML, specializing in complex family law litigation and the preparation of premarital agreements. He also handles appeals of family law judgments and writ proceedings involving family law orders. Mr. Melcher has substantial experience in the financial aspects of divorce, including tax consequences of property division and spousal support, the valuation and division of a family business, and the definition of income for purposes of setting spousal and child support. He served as Chair of the State Bar of California Family Law Section for the 2011-2012 term. He has presented over 125 continuing legal education programs across California and in other states on the issues of complex family law issues. He has authored treatises and articles on premarital agreements and financial issues in family law proceedings. He is a partner in the family law firm of Walzer Melcher LLP in Woodland Hills. He earned his law degree at Pepperdine University School of Law in Malibu, and was admitted to the California bar in 1994. He has a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from California State University, Northridge.

FORREST S. MOSTEN, CFLS, is a Certified Family Law Specialist and has been mediating in private practice since 1979. He limits his practice to mediation, collaborative law, unbundled representation, and premarital agreements in high conflict and complex legal matters. In 2013 he was again named a Super Lawyer in Family Law and in Mediation. He has written four books and numerous articles and teaches mediation at the UCLA School of Law. He trains family lawyers and mediators and keynotes professional conferences worldwide. He can be reached at www.mostenmediation.com.

LORIE S. NACHLIS, CFLS, is a partner in the Law Firm of Nachlis & Fink. She is certified by the State Bar Board of Legal Specialization as a Family Law Specialist and is a Fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. Lorie was a member of the Elkins Family Law Task Force and currently serves on the Elkins Implementation Task Force.

LOUISE NIXON has practiced law since 1994. Her practice focuses on retirement benefits, specifically determining the community or marital interest in pension benefits earned through employment and in consulting and/or drafting appropriate orders for the division and disposition of those interests. Ms. Nixon is founder and president of QDRO Counsel Inc., a professional law corporation. She received her B.A. from the University of California, Davis in 1984 and her J.D. from Whittier Law School in 1993. Before she began her legal career, Ms. Nixon worked as a legislative aide in Washington, D.C. and as public relations director for the Los Angeles World Affairs Council.

JUDGE CHARLES NOVACK was appointed to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California in 2010. Before then, Judge Novack practiced bankruptcy law in Oakland for 16 years. Judge Novack also served as an associate professor at California State University, East Bay. He frequently lectures on the interplay between bankruptcy and family law.

ELLEN PECK is a sole practitioner from Escondido, California. Her practice is limited to legal and expert services concerning the professional responsibilities of lawyers. She is a co-author of The Rutter Group's California Practice Guide: Professional Responsibility. She has served as ethics counsel to the State Bar and the ABA. She is past Chair of the State Bar Committee on Professional Conduct.

JUDGE AMY M. PELLMAN served as Legal Director at The Alliance for Children's Rights before taking the bench. She practiced appellate and trial work in the Children's Court and has taught and published extensively in the area of juvenile rights. She is known as a national advocate for children's rights and received the ABA Child Advocacy award. She sat in a Family Law trial assignment from 2005 to 2010. Currently, Judge Pellman is assigned to the Dependency Court in a Trial Department.

COMMISSIONER PATTI C. RATEKIN was appointed by the Superior Court of San Diego in June 2007. From June 2007 through December 2010 she handled AB1058 child support cases and has been assigned to an Independent Family Law Calendar since then. Prior to her appointment she was a CFLS for 13 years. She received her J.D. degree from Western State University. She was named Attorney of the Year in 2006 by the Bar Association of Northern San Diego County, in 2004 she received the Norby Award from the San Diego County Certified Family Law Specialists, and in 2014 she received the Distinguished Jurist Award from the AAML, Southern California Chapter. In 2016 she received the Commissioner of the Year Award from the California Court Commissioners Association and was named Judicial Officer of the Year by the San Diego Certified Family Law Specialists.

ELIZABETH POTTER SCULLY, CFLS, received her A.B. magna cum laude from Harvard and her J.D. from U.C. Hastings. She is a founding partner of Jacobson Scully Shebby LLP in Los Angeles, where her practice includes mediating and mediation consulting, collaborative law and minor's counsel work as well as traditional litigation. She currently teaches experiential courses in mediation and negotiation at UCLA Law School. With Forrest S. Mosten, she co-authored The Complete Guide to Mediation: How to Effectively Represent Your Clients and Expand Your Family Law Practice (ABA 2015) and the forthcoming Family Lawyer's Guide to Unbundled Legal Services (ABA 2017).

JUSTICE MARK B. SIMONS received his J.D. from the University of Chicago, where he served on the Law Review. In 2001, he was appointed to the First District Court of Appeal in San Francisco. Justice Simons was an adjunct professor of law and taught evidence at Hastings College of the Law from 2002 through 2004. He has lectured on evidence topics to numerous lawyer and judicial groups, including the B. E. Witkin Judicial College, and served as Dean of the Judicial College in 1995 and 1996. Justice Simons is the author of California Evidence Manual, published by West. He has twice received the Bernard Jefferson Award for Distinguished Service in Judicial Education.

STEVEN SPARTA, Ph.D., is in independent practice and is frequently court appointed to serve in family law cases.
